Will the Minister of PERSONNEL,PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS be pleased to state:

(a) the names of the Central Secretariat Employees Unions given recognition under the provisions of the C.C.S. (R.S.A.) Rules, 1993;

(b) whether these recognised Employees Unions had more than 35 per cent membership as desired; and

(c) if so, the total number of employees from Class-IIto Class-IVin each of the Ministry and the number of membership of the recognised Employees Unions out of them?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE OF DEPARTMENT OF PERSONNEL AND TRAINING AND DEPARTMENT OF PENSION AND PENSIONERS` WELFARE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SMT. VASUNDHRA RAJE)

(a) & (b): In terms of the provisions of the Central Civil Services (Recognition of Service Associations) Rules, 1993,ten service Associations had applied for recognition, out of which two, namely, the Central Secretariat Service SectionOfficers` Association and the Central Secretariat Non-Gazetted Employees` Union, have been granted recognition based on the criterion of 35 per cent or more membership. Three Associations representing Promotee Assistants, UDCs/LDCsand Group `D` staffhave been merged into one composite Association, i.e. Central Secretariat Non-Gazetted Employees` Union.

(c): There are 33 cadre-controlling authorities comprising various Ministries/Departments participating in the Central Secretariat Service Scheme who control employees from Group`B` to Group `D` (Class II to Class IV) belonging to therespective cadres. A statement indicating the cadre-wise number of employees from Group `B` to Group `D` is enclosedas Annexure `A`. In terms of the Central Civil Services(Recognition of Service Associations) Rules, 1993, recognition of Service Associations of Central Secretariat is aorded category-wise and not cadre-wise. Service Associations, representing a minimum 35% of the total number of employees in a particular category are aorded recognition in terms of the above rules. A statement indicating the category-wise, total number of employees and the membership represented by the recognised unions including percentage thereof is enclosed as Annexure `B`.
